OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs. This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the weaknesses and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil is enclosed in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 5 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. At the first sign that your kidneys are not working properly, go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed pack.

Too Much Appetite may be as dangerous as too little

When the skin is sallow or yellow, the eyes dull, the head aches or sleep broken and unrefreshing, the back aches, or there is a pain under the right shoulder blade—it is an indication that the body is being poisoned by poorly digested and imperfectly eliminated food-waste. It is a wise thing to take

Michigan Happenings

Birmingham—Berle, Weaver, 17, died at the city hospital here from the wound he received when a rifle in the hands of a friend was accidentally discharged.

Coldwater—Mrs. A. J. Jones paid the county $356.70 in delinquent taxes on the farm of her father, killed her after his death. He had refused to pay the taxes since 1914.

Reed City—B. F. Jones, of Lansing, and A. D. Jones, cousins of this place, met for the first time in 50 years. The latter recognized the former by a picture that had been sent him.

Petokey—Emmet, Cheboygan, Charlevoix and Antrim counties are suffering a severe shortage of teachers. Efforts are being made to hold special teachers' examinations.

Mancelona—A southbound C. R. and I passenger train was held up several hours on account of a burning carload of lumber at Leesville. The fire caused the main tracks to spread.

Hillsdale—James Nutton, 73, who has been blind for seven years, fell from an upstairs window at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Margaret Kelley, in Litchfield, and died soon afterwards.

Coldwater—Wages for 29 years, at $6 a week, totaling $9,264, are asked by Mrs. Ida Midgley from the estate of her mother, Mrs. Jane Crawbaker, whose will gives Mrs. Midgley only a life interest.

Coldwater—High school seniors have been put on a college basis, reporting at school only for classes and general assembly exercises, as the high school is so large there is no room for them.

Carleton—Thos. Clancy, owner of a repair shop, was lured from his home to repair a tire. When in a lonely place the guide was joined by five other men, who robbed Clancy of $25 and emptied a pail of paint on his head.

Bay City—The sugar beet crop in Bay County is reaching maturity much earlier than usual and sugar factories are making preparations to begin their campaigns earlier than in the last few years. The crop is said to be good.

Coldwater—A million-dollar loss faces American beekeepers, H. W. Kindig, state bee inspector, told the Branch County Bee Association here. Countless bees will starve to death this winter because of the sugar shortage, he says.

Lansing—Lee H. Pryor, assistant attorney-general in charge of liquor prosecutions for the state food and drug department, is dead here after a lengthy illness. He was 41 years old, a resident of Hastings and a former prosecuting attorney of Barry county.

Saginaw—Peter Griner, 68 years old, one of the best known railroad men in Michigan, died from injuries received when his engine went through a burned trestle near here, killing two others. Mr. Griner began his railroad career 48 years ago, on the old Flint and Holly road.

Hillsdale—Arlie Clement, a farmer, 41 years old, residing between Hudson and Pittsford, Hillsdale county, was found dead in a field on his farm when his wife went in search of him. A bull which had been showing signs of temper had evidently attacked him. His body was badly mutilated.

Three Rivers—The savings of a life time were lost when fire destroyed the home of John Cunkle. The family had only recently paid the last installment on the house. George Jackson, fire chief, has filed a complaint with the city commission, charging the telephone company with failure to notify the department promptly.

Detroit—Detroit packers, who have been the principal witnesses at Justice William M. Weston's grand jury inquiry into food prices several days, have testified in substance, according to Assistant Prosecutor Allan P. Cox, that 14 cents to 17 cents a pound is the price being paid for beef generally by Detroit market men.

Kalamazoo—"By scaling down the property investment account of the railroads from 20 billions of dollars to 10 or 12 billions, the Plumb plan for the nationalization of lines would effect a saving to the people of approximately $600,000,000 a year," according to its author, Glenn E. Plumb, who addressed a mass meeting at the state armory here.

Detroit—The Plumb plan for railroad ownership and operation was characterized as the entering wedge of a well developed plan for the nationalization of commerce and industry in the United States—"practically a repetition of the soviet government in Russia," said L. C. Boyle, of Washington, D. C., general counsel for the National Retail Lumber Dealers' association, in an address here.

Caro—Governor Sleeper, Banking Commissioner Merrick, Wm. P. Wallace, J. McNair Ealy, Caro banker, and P. C. Pardee are principles in the organization of an operating company whose purpose is the distribution of electric current throughout the thumb of Michigan through the Consumers' corporation, whose generating plants are located on the Au Sable river. The need of electric current sufficient for commercial enterprises as well as for individual use over that furnished by local companies is the reason for the new corporate Bay City—Herman Kortals, 70 years old, of Merritt township, dropped dead while plowing on his farm.

Kalamazoo—Mrs. Martha Blakett Morley, 70 years old, died in the house in which she had lived for 53 years.

Petokey—Clay E. Cail, former prosecuting attorney and probate judge, was gored by a bull at his farm near Mason.

Ann Arbor—Police and firemen have petitioned the city council for increases in pay. They say they will not strike.

Owosso—Ralph Sisco, returned soldier, who escaped wounds in hard fighting overseas, was seriously hurt when hit by an automobile while riding a bicycle.

Mancelona—The township board has ordered a special election Oct. 5 to decide whether or not to buy Palmer Grove, south of the village, for a playground and park.

Lansing—The Reo Automobile Co. has a co-operative store in operation at its plant here. Employees save from 10 to 30 per cent in their purchases, according to reports.

Berrien Springs—Nell Patterson, 6 years old, fell down the front steps of the schoolhouse while the children were marching out in a fire drill and broke his right arm.

Struag—Little Vera Rosin, 6 years old, was accidentally shot by her brother, who was playing with a gun. The bullet entered her right shoulder and passed through the lung.

Bellaire—The Antrim County Fair Association and the board of supervisors of Antrim County will entertain the soldiers of the World War during the fair, Oct. 1 and 2.

Kalamazoo—There is no such thing as too much pep, but too much ginger is a costly thing, as William Graham found, when he had to "shell out" $10 after he pleaded guilty to a "ginger jag."

Mt. Clemens—Surgeons have removed a safety pin from the throat of Harold Bates, two years old, son of Leonard Bates, New Haven storekeeper. The child swallowed the open pin several weeks ago.

Detroit—Detroit police dealt with 51, 135 violations of traffic regulations during the period between April 1, 1918, and July 31, 1919, according to tabulated reports filed with Deputy Commissioner George A. Walters.

Carland—The young son of a tenant on the farm of William Scott having seen his father burn stubble, put a match to a stack of rye straw near the barn, burning the stack, barn and $1,600 worth of hay and grain.

Manistee—Because several sisters were transferred to other missions in the state, Mercy Sanitarium has no competent operator for its X-ray machine. Physicians are managing to conduct their cases until an instructor arrives.

Bay City—Adam Schepper, alderman, was one of the owners of a dozen automobiles taken to the police station for disregard of the parking ordinance. All were fined $1. Farmers have been using the "No Parking" signs as hitching posts.

Kalamazoo—Fifteen hundred employees of the Bryant Paper mill, the largest in Kalamazoo, went on strike followed the refusal of the men and women to accept the company's offer of a half-holiday every second week instead of every week.

East Tawas—Frederick F. French, president of the East Tawas village board for 25 years and former prosecuting attorney of Iosco county, who suffered a stroke of apoplexy, died without regaining consciousness. He was formerly a banker and dry goods merchant.

Mt. Clemens—With oil being found in several parts of Macomb county, Detroit men have optioned about 1,000 acres of land west of Selfridge field. Test wells will start soon. The land is in the vicinity of the ground purchased by the Dodge Brothers, where it is reported the company will establish an automobile factory.

Saginaw—The Werner Pfleiderer Co., manufacturers of baking and other machinery, has been sold by the enemy alien property custodian to Donald A. Davis, representing New York banking interests, for approximately $300,000. The company was German owned and was engaged in Allied war work until the signing of the armistice. Warner was a colonel in the German army. The plant here will be continued and developed.

Caro—After enjoying the privileges of physical connection between the two telephone companies and their exchanges here for several months, the convenience has been discontinued owing to the unfriendly relations between the local exchanges. The action is contrary to the orders of the Public Utilities Commission. Business concerns and individuals are planning to take their case to Lansing since the difference arose last spring telephone service through both exchanges has been poor.

Grand Rapids—Charges that the Kent County Juvenile Home is a fire trap and a disgrace to the community G. J. Johnson has opened a war upon the supervisors to force them to take steps to erect a new home. The manufacturer says that the children are forced to play in an alley. Fire Marshal Boughner and Dr. C. O. Siemens, health officer, concurred in Johnson's statements. Judge Higbee, of juvenile court, also says the building is not proper. The supervisors had put off building a new home for a year.

Back Given Out?

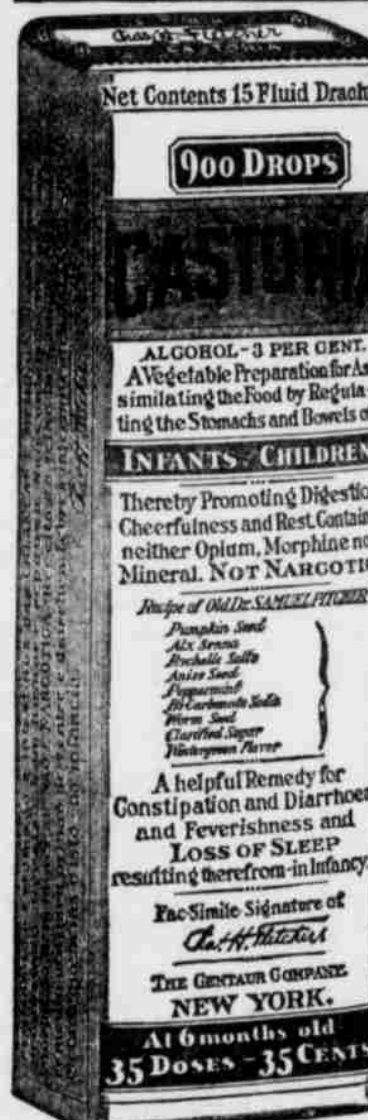

Housework is too hard for a woman who is half sick, nervous and always tired. But it keeps piling up, and gives weak kidneys no time to recover. If your back is lame and aches and your kidneys irregular, if you have "blue spells," sick headaches, nervousness, dizziness and rheumatic pains, use Doan's Kidney Pills. They have done wonders for thousands of worn out women.

A Michigan Case

Mrs. James M. Murphy, 329 Maple St., Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., says: "Kidney trouble came on me and I was so miserable from a steady ache across my back that I was often unable to attend to my work about the house. My kidneys were out of order. I felt all run down, until I took Doan's Kidney Pills. This medicine cured all the kidney symptoms and put me in the best of shape."

PAT EVIDENTLY MADE GOOD

News From America Seemed to Prove Irishman Had Not Misjudged His Capacity.

Pat Finnegan had left his wife in Ireland and gone to America to try his fortune and establish a home for his family in the new world. It was some two or three weeks after Pat's departure that his wife stood in the meager garden in front of her home, looking down the road her man had gone, and moodily speculating on his success. She was rudely startled by the harsh voice of Mrs. O'Leary calling her over the fence.

"Have you heard the news from America, Mrs. Finnegan?"
"Faith, an' Oi have not."
"Tis in the paper this mornin'. Read it for yerself. 'America gone dry. Last alcoholic drink sold at midnight, June 20.'"

Mrs. Finnegan looked doubtful for a minute; then, swelling with pride and casting a triumphant glance at Mrs. O'Leary, she shouted back: "Faith, an' Pat always said, give him two weeks an' there was not a country in the world he couldn't drink dry?"—Life.
